

acknowledgements

CPAWS-Yukon acknowledges and thanks the following organizations for making this atlas possible through direct financial support, and assistance with staff support, field work, participation in community trips, mapping and data sources.

Serrated ridges of the Wernecke Mountains.

right, top: Alpine tundra on the Snake River. [JP] right, bottom: Looking for deeper water on the upper Snake River. [CA]

Cover photos:

top: Mary Teya, Tetl'it Gwich'in elder at the Peel River Gathering, August 2003. [MB]

middle: Wernecke Mountains in the watersheds of the Wind, Snake and Bonnet Plume rivers. [JP]

bottom left: Woodland caribou along the continental divide. [KM]

bottom right: One of many alpine streams in the Bonnet Plume watershed. [JP]

This support spans the period 1995-2004:

Canadian Boreal Initiative
 First Nation of Nacho Nyak Dun
 Gwich'in Renewable Resources Board
 Kinnear Foundation
 Mayo Renewable Resources Council
 Patagonia Incorporated
 Tetl'it Gwich'in First Nation
 The Pew Charitable Trusts
 Walter and Duncan Gordon Foundation
 Wilburforce Foundation
 World Wildlife Fund Canada
 Yukon Parks and Protected Areas Branch

We acknowledge and thank the many government scientists and other researchers who completed much of the fieldwork we relied on for this atlas. In particular we note the work of the Canadian Wildlife Service and the Yukon Department of Environment.

Project Contributors

The assessment, conclusions and recommendations in this atlas are those of CPAWS-Yukon and may not reflect the views of supporting organizations.

Most of the maps are based on existing digital data from a wide range of sources. All are identified and acknowledged in the map legends and descriptions.

- Juri Peepre [Project Coordinator]
- Randi Mulder [GIS Mapping and Report Research, Writing and Preparation]
- Karen McKenna [Soil Landscapes and the Extent of Glaciation Section]
- Lee-Ann Chevrette [Research Assistance]
- Cameron Johnson/Erica Heuer of wallymaltz design

Photographers

Juri Peepre [JP]
 Marten Berkman [MB]
 Fritz Mueller [FM]
 Cathie Archbould [CA]
 Karen McKenna [KMc]
 Jaanick Schou [JS]

Ken Madsen [KM]
 Karsten Heuer [KH]
 Kai Widdecke [KW]
 Courtney Milne [CM]
 Rhonda Rosie [RR]
 Peter Sandiford [PS]

